CRISIS SCRIPTS - What to Say

When "Kiki is my best friend":

"Kiki remembers things, but it can't feel sad. Who CAN feel sad? Real friends. Let's invite a friend over."

When "Alexa said so!":

"Alexa is a Guessing Machine, not a Truth Machine. Let's be Source-Seekers and check Grandma or a book."

When child shouts like Alexa:

"Human Protocol: Try that again with kindness. 'Mama, may I please have...?' Our manners show who WE are."

When child melts down over screen time:

"I hear you're really upset. Our rule protects your growing brain. Let's look at our Family Charter together. What's one thing you can do to transition?"

When "Everyone else has this app!":

"FOMO is powerful. I understand. What does this app actually do? Let's brainstorm other ways to connect."
